ALDERMANIC REPORT

Chief Hall stated that at next week's the Board of Alderman will be again considering and a possible second reading regarding the proposed medical marijuana facility on Manchester Road. He stated there was a public hearing at the last meeting which led to some revisions to the proposed ordinance. He stated some of the questions related to traffic concerns, waste disposal, and any changes that will take place in the event the recreational marijuana passed in the fall.

Chief Hall stated that it appears the Hunan Star restaurant will close this week in anticipation of the Shake Shack development on eastbound Manchester Road.

BUDGET

Chief Hall stated that the budget is on course with a projected 33.6% by the end of August. He stated that the items that are over budget are overtime, gas & oil, first aid supplies, and vehicle maintenance. Chief Hall stated that he has request a midyear budget adjustment. However, he stated that the Director of Finance indicated that the department does have a salary savings in 2022 of approximately $160,000. The accounts will continue to be monitored. He concluded, with the addition of a firefighter-paramedic and two employees close to testing for paramedic certification, the overtime account should show some relief in the last quarter of the year.

Chief Hall presented the commission the tentative 2023 Capital budget. Commissioner Ashcraft asked if the department was still considering the high suppression unit and he believed it would be an asset to the department, especially in responding to vehicle fires. Chief Hall advised that the department was still considering it and are currently planning future truck purchases.

Commissioner McGrath asked if the department has considered the use of drone technology and Chief Hall advised that after the shooting incidents at West County Center the department considered both K-9 unit and drone. A short discussion was held on the overall use of the drone and in areas such as serious auto accidents on the 270, parking lot surveillance at West County Center, and missing persons.
